

Privacy Policy

We value your privacy. Taste the Trip collects limited personal information only when necessary for providing services such as itineraries, consultations, or bookings. Information is never sold to third parties and is used solely for the purpose of improving your travel planning experience. You have the right to access, modify, or request deletion of your personal data at any time by contacting us directly.

Terms and Conditions

By using Taste the Trip, you agree to the following: - Services provided are for personal, non-commercial use. - Payments must be completed before delivery of itineraries or consultations. - We are not responsible for changes made by third-party providers (restaurants, tours, transport, etc.). - Clients are responsible for ensuring their own travel documents (passports, visas) are valid.

Refund Policy

Because itineraries are custom and created based on your unique preferences, all sales are final once delivered. Refunds may be issued on a case-by-case basis before delivery if no significant work has been completed. Please contact us directly if you believe a refund applies to your case.

Disclaimer

Taste the Trip is not a travel agency. We do not book flights, hotels, or tickets. Our service is to create custom itineraries and recommendations. We cannot guarantee availability or pricing of third-party services, and clients assume full responsibility for making their bookings.

Accessibility Statement

Taste the Trip is committed to ensuring our website and documents are accessible to all users, including those with disabilities. We aim to follow recognized accessibility standards (such as WCAG). If you experience any issues accessing content, please contact us so we can assist and improve our accessibility features.